NIGHT LETTER

Houston, Texas, May 1st, 1911.

ED. S. DERDEN, Agent,

Bryan, Texas.

Our April business exceeded eleven hundred and thirty-five thousand dollars. This probably establishes a new record for any Texas Company and reflects everlasting credit on you and every other representative of the company who was a contributing factor towards the accomplishment of this great achievement.

O. S. CARLTON, Vice-President, Great Southern Life Ins. Co.

BUSINESS CHANGE.

Messrs. John Nicol and W. E. Cloud have purchased the market business of Mr. S. W. Buchanan and have taken charge and are operating the business at the same stand in the Braatz building. The fixtures, tools, etc., were included in the trade, and the business will be conducted as heretofore. Upon the completion of the Bonnevillie building the market will be moved to that place. Mr. Nicol stated to an Eagle reporter Tuesday morning that it was the intention of him and Mr. Cloud to conduct the business in the best way possible and to offer to the people of Bryan first-class market products.

Miss Louise Ward, of Elliville, Miss., arrived Monday night to visit Mrs. H. N. McAshan.

Right to the Point.

When the lord chief justice visited Ireland he was often entertained by a hospitable gentleman who had an old butler, who took the privilege of speaking his mind freely. On one occasion the claret did not quite meet the host's approval, so he called the ancient butler and said:

"I told you you were to put the best claret on the table. Is this the best?" "No, sorr, it is not the best claret," replied the old fellow, "but it's the best ye've got."—London Tit-Bits.

Knew He Was Worshipped.

"In Paris Mr. Whistler and an English painter got into a very turbulent argument about Velasquez at a studio tea," said an artist. "Mr. Whistler at one point in the argument praised himself extravagantly. The Englishman, listening, sneered and said at the end: 'It's a good thing we can't see our selves as others see us.' 'Isn't it, though?' said Mr. Whistler. 'I know in my case I should grow intolerably conceited.'"

Theology and the Thermometer.

A point of theology is raised by Sir Francis Younghusband in "India and Tibet." "An interesting detail," he says, speaking of the religion of the natives, "is that their hell is not hot, but cold. If it were hot the inhabitants of frozen Tibet would all flock there."

Clever Auntie.

Traveler—It seems wonderful that Japanese dentists can take out teeth with their fingers. Little Jack—Auntie can take out hers with her fingers—every one of 'em!

Perfection.

Perfection does not exist. To understand it is the triumph of human intelligence; to desire to possess it is the most dangerous kind of madness.—Alfred de Musset.

Sin every day takes out a patent for some new invention.—Whipple.

SMALL BLAZE IN RESIDENCE

The fire department responded to a call from the eastern part of town Tuesday morning, to the residence of Mr. D. M. Dansby. The roof of the house caught fire from the kitchen flue and for a short while the entire property was in danger. Neighbors formed a bucket brigade and were working to extinguish the flames when the department arrived.

The chemical company soon had their machine in operation and made quick work of putting out the fire. The hose company was prompt to answer the call and laid a line of hose two blocks and had a stream on the fire in less time than it takes to tell it, but seeing that both streams were not needed, shut off the water.

No serious damage resulted and the loss is fully covered by insurance.

BAPTIST PICNIC POSTPONED.

The First Baptist Sunday school picnic announced for next Thursday has been postponed until Friday, and Superintendent Bullock requests The Eagle to announce it. The reasons for the postponement are that another Sunday school picnic is to be given at that time at Dellwood park and they had arranged for the park first. Also the graduating exercises of Villa Maria are to be held on Thursday morning, and for these reasons the First Baptist picnic will be postponed until Friday.

Every member of the Sunday school and church are urged to attend and all bring well filled baskets. Bring your baskets and be at the church on Friday morning at 9 o'clock, and the cars will be ready for the trip to Dellwood.

DOES BUSINESS WITH VAGS.

For fear that Constable Baker would get all the glory for "vag" work in Bryan, Policeman Albert Worley got busy Monday and proceeded to cause quite a deal of consternation among the feminine element of the black four hundred. Seven of these daughters of Africa were escorted into the city court and charges of vagrancy entered against them. All seven pleaded guilty and each was fined $5 and costs, totaling $37.50. There are too many negro women here who will not work and they deserve to be punished. Officer Worley is to be commended for this piece of good work.
